 - (4) The depository shall not register the transfer or encumbrance of a subordinate unit in favour of any person unless such a person is a sponsor of the InvIT, associate of such sponsor or belongs to the sponsor group of the InvIT.
 - (5) The investment manager shall disclose any inter-se transfer or inter-se encumbrance of subordinate units to the recognised stock exchange within one working day of such transfer or encumbrance.
 - (6) In case of a change in the sponsor, the outgoing sponsor shall transfer the subordinate units held by it, if any, to another sponsor, its associates or sponsor group.

Entitlement date, entitlement event and performance benchmark.

- 17D. (1) The entitlement date, the entitlement event and the performance benchmark for reclassification of subordinate units to ordinary units shall be clearly defined and specified in the Term Sheet.
- (2) The performance benchmark for reclassification of subordinate units shall be quantifiable, objective and based on the audited financial statements.
- (3) The minimum time period between the issuance of subordinate units and entitlement date for reclassification of the subordinate units to ordinary units shall be three year.
- (4) The entitlement date may be extended in the manner specified in the Term Sheet, subject to the following conditions:
- (a) the entitlement date shall not be extended for more than one year at a time and shall not be extended more than two times in total;
 - (b) the extension of the entitlement date may be done only for cases where a possibility of such extension is clearly contemplated, duly approved and disclosed in the Term Sheet prior to the issuance of subordinate units;
 - (c) the extension of entitlement date shall be allowed only in case of any unforeseen circumstances as mentioned in the Term Sheet such as impossibility on account of a force majeure event or illegality on account of change in law or an order of any court or authority;
 - (d) the explanatory statement to the notice of unitholders meeting convened for seeking approval for the extension in entitlement date shall disclose the reasons for proposing such extension and the potential impact on account of such extension on the ordinary unitholders, including any potential dilution of their beneficial interest in the InvIT; and

- (e) the extension of the entitlement date shall require the approval of the unitholders as provided for in sub-regulation (7) of regulation 17B;

Progress related to achievement of performance benchmark.

- 17E. (1) The investment manager shall monitor the progress related to the achievement of performance benchmark and shall report such progress annually or with such frequency as may be specified by the Board, after certification by the statutory auditor of the InvIT and approval of the trustee and the audit committee of the investment manager.
- (2) The investment manager shall disclose the progress related to achievement of performance benchmark in the Annual Report of the InvIT.
- (3) The investment manager shall disclose the diluted NAV and the diluted distribution per unit to the stock exchange along with NAV and distribution per unit till the time subordinate units are outstanding.

Explanation. – For the purpose of this sub-regulation –

- (a) “diluted NAV” or “diluted net asset value” means the value of the InvIT assets reduced by the external debt divided by the total number of outstanding ordinary units and subordinate units; and
- (b) “diluted distribution per unit” means the value of total distribution, divided by the total number of outstanding ordinary units and subordinate units.

Process for reclassification of subordinate unit.

- 17F. (1) The status of achievement of performance benchmark shall be certified by the statutory auditor of the InvIT for reclassification of subordinate units to ordinary units and shall be reviewed by the trustee and the audit committee of the investment manager.
- (2) If the performance benchmark is achieved at the end of the entitlement date, including extended period, if any; the subordinate units shall be reclassified into equal number of ordinary units on a pari passu basis in accordance with the terms and conditions of subordinate units mentioned in the Term Sheet.

Explanation 1. - The reclassification can happen for all subordinate units either together or on a piecemeal basis in accordance with the terms and conditions and on the achievement of performance benchmarks as disclosed in the Term Sheet.

Explanation 2. - The subordinate units may be reclassified into ordinary units, in part or in full in accordance with the terms and conditions and on the achievement of performance benchmarks as disclosed in the Term Sheet.

- (3) If the performance benchmark is not achieved at the end of the entitlement date, including extended period, if any, the subordinate units shall be extinguished without any payment to the holder of subordinate units.
- (4) The board of directors of the investment manager shall consider reclassification of subordinate units into ordinary units or extinguishment of the subordinate units depending on the achievement of the performance benchmark and pass a resolution making the necessary recommendation to this effect to the trustee.
- (5) The recommendation for reclassification of the subordinate units into ordinary units or extinguishment of the subordinate units, as the case may be, shall be considered by the trustee and after ensuring compliance with the provisions of these regulations, the trustee may approve reclassification of the subordinate units into ordinary units or extinguishment of the subordinate units, as the case may be, and intimate the same to the investment manager.
- (6) Pursuant to the approval of the trustee, the investment manager shall make the necessary intimation to the recognised stock exchange, depositories and the Registrar and Transfer Agent.

- (7) The investment manager shall ensure that the record date is disclosed as part of the intimation made under this regulation, at least two working days prior to the record date, excluding the date of intimation and the record date.

Explanation. – For the purpose of this chapter, record date shall mean the date from when subordinate units shall be reclassified as ordinary units.

- (8) The subordinate units upon being reclassified as ordinary units shall be listed on the recognised stock exchange(s) upon receipt of final listing and trading approval from such stock exchange(s).]

- 17G. (1) The provisions of this chapter shall be applicable for all unit based employee benefit scheme introduced on or after the date of this chapter coming into force:

Provided that the provisions pertaining to disclosure requirements in this chapter shall apply to any unit based employee benefit scheme introduced prior and subsisting as on the date of this chapter coming into force.

- (2) For unit based employee benefit scheme introduced prior to this chapter coming into force, any unit acquired or any unit based employee benefit options granted by any employee benefit trust after the date of this chapter coming into force, shall be in compliance with this chapter.

Nature of scheme and implementation of scheme through trust.

- 17F. (1) The unit based employee benefit scheme shall be in the nature of employee unit option scheme.
- (2) Any offer of a unit based employee benefit scheme by the investment manager shall not result in any additional cost to the InvIT, its HoldCo and SPV.
- (3) The unit based employee benefit scheme shall be implemented through a separate employee benefit trust which shall be created by the investment manager.
- (4) The investment manager shall ensure that the trust deed under which the employee benefit trust is formed contains provisions specified in Part A of Schedule IX of these regulations.

Manner of receiving units by the employee benefit trust.

- 17G. (1) The employee benefit trust may receive units of the InvIT in the following manner for the purpose of offering unit based employee benefit scheme:

- (a) The investment manager may receive the units of InvIT in lieu of management fees, through the employee benefit trust, only for the limited purpose of providing unit based employee benefit on such units;

Explanation. – For the above purpose, the investment manager may take full or part of the management fees in the form of units of InvIT.

- (b) A shareholder of investment manager may transfer full or part of the units of InvIT held by it to the employee benefit trust:

Provided that in case a sponsor is also a shareholder of the investment manager, then the sponsor group and associate of the sponsor may also transfer full or part of the units held by them to the employee benefit trust;

- (c) The investment manager may transfer full or part of the units of InvIT held by it to the employee benefit trust;

Explanation. – For the purpose of clauses (b) and (c), any transfer of units to the employee benefit trust shall be irrevocable and without any consideration in return i.e. shall constitute a gift to the employee benefit trust.

- (2) Subordinate units shall not be eligible for being transferred to the employee benefit trust or being made part of a unit based employee benefit scheme.
- (3) The cash accumulated by the employee benefit trust on account of distributions received on units of the InvIT held by such trust, income earned on the assets held by the employee benefit trust and receipt of exercise price from the employees of the investment manager on exercise of options, may be used by the employee benefit trust for acquiring units of the InvIT either from the secondary market or during any fresh issuance of units by the InvIT only for the purpose of using such units for unit based employee benefit scheme.
- (4) The employee benefit trust may subscribe to the units of the InvIT subject to compliance with the minimum lot for primary market transaction specified under these regulations:

Provided that the minimum trading lot specified under these regulations shall not be applicable for vesting of units of a privately placed InvIT in employees of the investment manager and exercised by them:

Provided further that in case of a privately placed InvIT, the employees of the investment manager may sell an odd lot quantity of the units vested upon them, in off-market transaction(s).

Secondary acquisition.

- 17H. (1) The employee benefit trust shall not be used as a mode for trading in units of the InvIT.

- (2) Secondary acquisition in a financial year by the employee benefit trust shall not exceed two per cent of the total outstanding units of the InvIT as at the end of the previous financial year.

Explanation. - “secondary acquisition” means acquisition of existing units of the InvIT by the employee benefit trust on the platform of a recognised stock exchange for cash consideration for the purpose of unit based employee benefit scheme.

- (3) The total number of units under secondary acquisition held by the employee benefit trust shall at no point of time exceed five per cent of the total outstanding units of the InvIT as at the end of the financial year immediately prior to the year in which the unitholders approval is obtained for such secondary acquisition:

Provided that the above ceiling limit shall exclude the units that are allotted to the employee benefit trust by way of a new issue or gift.

- (4) The investment manager shall obtain approval of unitholders for secondary acquisition as per sub-regulation (5) of regulation 22 of these regulations.
- (5) The employee benefit trust shall be required to hold the units acquired through secondary acquisition for a minimum period of six months.
- (6) The employee benefit trust shall disclose the period during which it plans to undertake secondary acquisition, in advance of at least seven working days (excluding the date of intimation and the date of start of such period), to the recognised stock exchanges and the depositories.
- (7) The employees of the investment manager shall not sell units of the InvIT held by them during the period referred in sub-regulation (6).
- (8) The investment manager shall submit a list of its employees to the depositories along with relevant details of the employees including their Income Tax Permanent Account Number, in advance of at least seven working days (excluding the date of intimation and the date of start of the period during which the employee benefit trust plans to undertake secondary acquisition).

- (9) The depositories shall impose lock-in on the holdings of units of InvIT by such employees and the lock-in shall be released after the period during which the employee benefit trust plans to undertake secondary acquisition, as disclosed to the recognised stock exchanges and depositories, has elapsed.

Manner of allotment of units to the employee benefit trust by the InvIT.

17L. (1) An investment manager of any InvIT that allots units to the employee benefit trust in lieu of management fees to the investment manager shall ensure the following:

- (a) obtaining the approval of unitholders as per sub-regulation (5) of regulation 22 of these regulations before issuance of units to the employee benefit trust;
- (b) issuance of units to the employee benefit trust only once in a financial year, within ninety days after the completion of the annual valuation exercise;
- (c) issuance of units to the employee benefit trust shall be made in compliance with the guidelines for preferential issue of units specified by the Board;
- (d) allotting such units directly to the employee benefit trust so that such units are used exclusively for unit based employee benefit scheme.

Role of nomination and remuneration committee.

- 17L. (1) The nomination and remuneration committee of the investment manager shall be responsible for the administration and superintendence of the unit based employee benefit scheme.
- (2) The nomination and remuneration committee shall formulate the detailed terms and conditions of the unit based employee benefit scheme which shall include the provisions as specified in Part B of Schedule IX of these regulations.

- (3) The nomination and remuneration committee of the investment manager shall frame suitable policies and procedures to ensure compliance with all securities laws particularly the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 and the Securities and Exchange Board of India I (Prohibition of Fraudulent and Unfair Trade Practices relating to the Securities Market) Regulations, 2003 by the investment manager, its directors, its key managerial personnel, sponsor, recipients of units under the unit based employee benefit scheme, the employee benefit trust and trustee of the employee benefit trust.

Variation of terms of the scheme.

- 17M. (1) The investment manager may vary the terms of the unit based employee benefit scheme offered pursuant to an earlier resolution of the unitholders but not yet exercised by the employees, if such variation is not prejudicial to the interests of the employees.
- (2) The investment manager shall obtain the approval of unitholders as per sub-regulation (5) of regulation 22 of these regulations before varying the terms of the unit based employee benefit scheme.
 - (3) Notwithstanding the provisions of sub-regulation (1), the investment manager may vary the terms of the unit based employee benefit scheme to fulfil any legal or regulatory obligation without seeking unitholders' approval.
 - (4) The explanatory statement to the notice for passing a resolution for variation of terms of a unit based employee benefit scheme and the resolution proposed to be passed by the unitholders shall disclose complete details of the variation, the rationale therefor, details of any employees that may be the beneficiaries of such variation and information as specified in Part C of Schedule IX of these regulations or as otherwise specified by the Board.

- (5) The investment manager may reprice the options which are not exercised, whether or not they have been vested, if the scheme was rendered unattractive due to fall in the price of the units in the stock market:

Provided that the investment manager shall ensure that such repricing is not detrimental to the interests of the employees and approval of the unitholders has been obtained for such repricing as per sub-regulation (5) of regulation 22 of these regulations.

Listing.

17N. (1) In case a new issue of units is made under any unit based employee benefit scheme, units so issued shall be listed immediately on all recognised stock exchange(s) where the existing units are listed, subject to the following conditions:

- (a) The unit based employee benefit scheme is in compliance with these regulations;
- (b) A statement, as specified in Part D of Schedule IX of these regulations, is filed and the investment manager obtains an in-principle approval from the recognised stock exchange(s);
- (c) As and when an exercise is made, the investment manager notifies the concerned recognised stock exchange(s) as per the statement as specified in Part E of Schedule IX of these regulations.

Trustee of the employee benefit trust.

17O. (1) The trustee of the employee benefit trust shall be a trustee registered with the Board under the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Debenture Trustees) Regulations, 1993.

- (2) The trustee of the InvIT shall not act as the trustee of the employee benefit trust.

- (3) The employee benefit trust or its trustee shall not be eligible to vote on account of the units of the InvIT held by such trust.

Insider trading norms.

- 17P. (1) The provisions of the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 and the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Prohibition of Fraudulent and Unfair Trade Practices relating to the Securities Market) Regulations, 2003 shall be applicable to the investment manager, its directors, its key managerial personnel, sponsor, recipients of units under the unit based employee benefit scheme, the employee benefit trust and trustee of the employee benefit trust.
- (2) The relaxations and exemptions provided under the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 in relation to employee stock option scheme shall mutatis-mutandis apply to the unit based employee benefit scheme offered in accordance with this chapter.
 - (3) The trading window restrictions specified under the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 shall not apply in respect of issue of units by the InvIT to the employee benefit trust, in lieu of management fees, for providing unit based employee benefit in accordance with this chapter.

Other requirements.

- 17Q. (1) The units held by the employee benefit trust shall be used only for the purpose of offering unit based employee benefit scheme.
- (2) The employee benefit trust shall not undertake any transfer or sale of units of the InvIT held by it except for providing unit based employee benefits in accordance with this chapter.
 - (3) The units of the InvIT transferred to the employee benefit trust shall be

[See regulation 17Q (6)]

A: Statement of Risks

All investments in units or options are subject to risk as the value of units may increase or reduce. In addition, the options /are subject to the following additional risks:

1. Concentration: The risk arising out of any fall in value of units is aggravated if the employee's holding is concentrated in the units of a single InvIT.
2. Leverage: Any change in the value of the unit may lead to a significantly larger change in the value of the options.
3. Illiquidity: The options cannot be transferred to anybody and therefore the employees cannot mitigate their risks by selling the whole or part of their benefits before they are exercised.
4. Vesting: The options will lapse if the employment is terminated prior to vesting. Even after the options are vested, the unexercised options may be forfeited if the employee is terminated for gross misconduct.

B: Information about the InvIT

1. Business of the InvIT: A description of the main objects and present business of the InvIT.
2. Abridged financial information: Abridged financial information, for the last five years for which audited financial information is available, as specified by the Board from time to time. The last audited accounts of the InvIT shall also be provided unless this has already been provided to the employee in connection with a previous option or grant or otherwise.
3. Risk Factors: Management perception of the risk factors for the InvIT.
4. Continuing disclosure requirement: The option grantee shall be provided copies of all documents that are sent to the unitholders of the InvIT. This shall include the annual accounts of the InvIT as well as notices of meetings and the accompanying explanatory statements.

C: Salient Features of the Scheme

This Part shall contain the salient features of the scheme of the investment manager including the conditions regarding vesting, exercise, adjustment for corporate actions, and forfeiture of vested options. It shall not be necessary to include this Part if it has already been provided to the employee in connection with a previous grant and no changes have taken place in the scheme since then. If the scheme administrator provides advisory services to the grantees in connection with the exercise of options or sale of resulting units, such advice shall be accompanied by an appropriate disclosure of concentration and other risks. The scheme administrator shall conform to the code of conduct appropriate for such fiduciary relationships.]
